

LATIN (LATN)

Latin Undergraduate Courses

LATN 1110 ELEMENTARY LATIN I (5 credits)

This course will provide opportunities for students to develop a basic reading knowledge of Latin.

LATN 1120 ELEMENTARY LATIN II (5 credits)

This is the second semester of a university-oriented two-year Latin course. The course will cover the basics of Latin grammar, which will be instrumental in preparing the student for reading Latin primary sources and making connections between that content and the literatures of Western Europe.

Prerequisite(s): LATN 1110 or placement by instructor's diagnostic examination.

LATN 2110 INTERMEDIATE LATIN I (3 credits)

This is the third semester of a university-oriented two-year sequence of Latin courses. The course will cover the basics of Latin grammar, which will be instrumental in preparing the students for reading Latin primary sources and making connections between their contents and the literatures of Western Europe.

Prerequisite(s): LATN 1120 or placement by instructor's diagnostic examination.

LATN 2120 INTERMEDIATE LATIN II (3 credits)

This is the fourth semester of a university-oriented two-year sequence of Latin courses. The course will cover the basics of Latin grammar, which will be instrumental in preparing the students for reading Latin primary sources and making connections between their contents and the literatures of Western Europe.

Prerequisite(s): LATN 2110 or placement by instructor's diagnostic examination.