

STUDENT LIFE & WELLBEING

Student Life & Wellbeing

The services provided by the Division of Student Life and Wellbeing (SLW) are designed to promote the growth and development of the whole student – intellectually, physically, emotionally, socially, financially, environmentally, occupationally and spiritually – to allow students to develop skills that lead to success both during school and throughout life. The SLW Division provides an integrated, holistic approach to both curricular and co-curricular learning by providing support, activities, and engagement that enriches the student experience on campus and better prepares them to be an active and engaged citizens in our global community.

Mission

The Division of Student Life and Wellbeing cultivates an inclusive, caring, student centered community through meaningful connection and involvement.

Vision

Student Life and Wellbeing strives to be a division that fosters comprehensive opportunities that inspire and empower students towards self-compassion, self-advocacy, and holistic wellness.
