

ADVANCED WRITING CERTIFICATE

Writing, and anything else that conveys the applicant's related creative and intellectual interests.

Vision Statement

The graduate certificate in advanced writing is designed for students interested in becoming more expressive, powerful writers of nonfiction prose. Students interested in securing publication of their writing are mentored in the publication process by the faculty.

The advanced writing certificate is designed for the following students:

- Writers interested in developing and publishing their creative nonfiction;
- Graduate students in English and related fields;
- Educators seeking writing-specific training and credentials;
- Working professionals who either are currently employed or will be seeking employment as experts in written communication;
- Individuals who work in community service organizations;
- Individuals dedicated to cultural activities in the community.

Exit Requirements:

Portfolio Requirement

Students will assemble a portfolio representing their achievement in the five courses (15 hours) applied toward the advanced writing certificate. The portfolio will contain at least one writing sample from each course and will be reviewed by the student's advisor and one other graduate faculty member involved in offering courses approved for the advanced writing certificate. As part of the portfolio requirement, each student will make an oral presentation to the reviewing professors. During that discussion, special attention will be given to each student's professional goals for their writing. Please see the website (<http://www.unomaha.edu/college-of-arts-and-sciences/english/academics/graduate-programs/>) for the advanced writing graduate certificate for a more detailed description of the portfolio requirement and the deadlines for submission.
