

POLITICAL SCIENCE MINOR

Students outside of political science may earn a political science minor in conjunction with their graduate program by taking 9 credit hours/3 seminars in political science. At least 3 credit hours/1 seminar must include a political science subfield of: American government, political theory, comparative politics, or international relations. Students must earn a B or above in all political science courses taken for the minor. Students must apply for this minor through the proper procedures.

Code	Title	Credits
Required: At least 3 credit hours/1 seminar in the political science subfields listed below:		3
PSCI 8040	SEMINAR IN AMERICAN GOVERNMENT AND POLITICS
PSCI 8250	SEMINAR IN INTERNATIONAL RELATIONS
PSCI 8300	SEMINAR IN POLITICAL THEORY
PSCI 8500	SEMINAR IN COMPARATIVE POLITICS
Electives: The remaining 6 credit hours/2 seminars may include any remaining seminars listed above as well as those listed below:		6
PSCI 8100	SEMINAR IN POLITICAL ECONOMY
PSCI 8120	SEMINAR IN LEADERSHIP
PSCI 8150	SEMINAR IN CONSTITUTIONAL LAW
PSCI 8200	SEMINAR IN FOREIGN POLICY AND NATIONAL SECURITY
PSCI 8220	SEMINAR ON INTERNATIONAL LEADERSHIP AND STRATEGY
PSCI 8920	SEMINAR IN SPECIAL TOPICS IN POLITICAL SCIENCE	