BUSINESS ADMINISTRATION (BSAD)

BSAD 1010 CBA SCHOLARS ACADEMY SEMINAR (0 credits)
This course will provide CBA Scholars Academy students the opportunity to learn about their Gallup Strengths, network with other CBA Scholars and staff, and create strategies for connecting with business professionals.
Prerequisite(s)/Corequisite(s): Limited to students who are first-year freshman members of the College of Business Administration Scholars Academy. Not open to non-degree graduate students.

BSAD 1020 CBA INTERNATIONAL STUDENT SEMINAR (0 credits)
This course will provide CBA International students the opportunity to learn more about U.S. & UNO culture. It will provide academic success skills, networking with other International students & staff & faculty.
Prerequisite(s)/Corequisite(s): Limited to International students in the College of Business Administration.

BSAD 2100 PRINCIPLES OF SUSTAINABILITY: IMPACT OF INDIVIDUALS & ORGANIZATIONS ON ECOLOGY, EQUITY & ECONOMICS (3 credits)
This course introduces participants to the principles and practical applications of sustainability from science, engineering, policy, and business perspectives. The course will focus on systems thinking, analyzing the impact of human activities on the triple-bottom-line of People, Planet and Profits. We will examine and debate major environmental issues and trends in modern society from a scientific and practical perspective, including energy and resource use, pollution, climate change, water, and population. Current examples/case studies will be examined and critiqued. The course presents practical skills for participants in the area of integrating sustainability into business practices, consumer decisions, policies, and development.
Prerequisite(s)/Corequisite(s): Admission to the University Honors Program. Distribution: Social Science General Education course

BSAD 2130 PRINCIPLES OF BUSINESS STATISTICS (3 credits)
An accelerated course covering statistical methods used in business analysis. Topics include descriptive statistics, graphical and tabular methods of data presentation, probability, discrete and continuous distributions, hypothesis testing of means and proportions for single and multiple populations, and regression analysis.
Prerequisite(s)/Corequisite(s): MATH 1320 or MATH 1370 with a ‘C’(2.0) or better. Distribution: Social Science General Education course

BSAD 2160 MANAGERIAL STATISTICS FOR BUSINESS (4 credits)
An accelerated course covering statistical methods used in business analysis. Topics include descriptive statistics, graphical and tabular presentation of data, probability, analysis of discrete and continuous data, regression analysis, forecasting methods.
Prerequisite(s)/Corequisite(s): BSAD 2130 with ‘C’ (2.0) or better. Distribution: Social Science General Education course

BSAD 2700 GLOBALIZATION OF BUSINESS ENTERPRISE (3 credits)
This course is for students who are interested in gaining a framework for thinking broadly but systematically about international business and differences across countries.
Distribution: Global Diversity General Education course and Social Science General Education course

BSAD 3140 BUSINESS STATISTICAL APPLICATIONS (3 credits)
Applies inferential statistics analysis of variance, multiple regression and correlation, time series, non-parametric statistics such as chi-square analysis, and decision analysis to business problems.
Prerequisite(s)/Corequisite(s): BSAD 2130 with ‘C’ (2.0) or better. Distribution: Social Science General Education course

BSAD 3160 BUSINESS ETHICS (3 credits)
Students will learn about the factors, opportunities and pressures that lead to ethical dilemmas, and will develop their understanding of foundations and processes that encourage and reward ethical decision making and behaviors. Lots of examples, sourced from case studies and current events will be provided. (Cross-listed with MGMT 3600, MKT 3600)
Prerequisite(s)/Corequisite(s): Junior classification (minimum of 58 earned credit hours) with a minimum 2.5 cumulative GPA. Completion of MGMT 3200 or MKT 3200 with a minimum grade of ‘C’ (2.0). Distribution: Social Science General Education course

BSAD 3600 BUSINESS ETHICS (3 credits)
The purpose of this course is to provide students with an international business and cultural experience through a study tour in a selected international location. Students will develop an understanding of the factors that affect international business decisions by visiting American companies operating abroad and foreign companies that export goods and services to the U.S. Typically, travel is conducted during Spring Break.
Prerequisite(s)/Corequisite(s): Junior standing